President's Message

It's dues time again! When your notice arrives in the mail, please return it promptly. Each year a few members are dropped from the TAMS roster because they put off mailing their dues, and eventually just forget about it. Then, a few months later when they notice that the Journal issues are no longer being received, they write to find out what happened. This creates extra work (and expense) for our hard working secretary and treasurer.

Once again we have been able to hold our annual dues to a modest $10 ($15 for foreign members). Surely this is one of the best buys in numismatics. I am also a member of the Society of Paper Money Collectors, and learned, via a notice recently received, that this organization has had to increase its dues to $20; a drastic increase, but one I'm sure was necessary to insure the continued publication of their magazine (which, like ours, is published bimonthly).

Why not consider life membership in TAMS? For a one time fee of $200 you will no longer have to worry about annual dues, or increases. If this interests you, contact TAMS Secretary Dorothy Baber for details.

TAMS continues to be active in the area of book publishing. During the past year we released Tom Robinson's Arkansas Merchant Tokens. We also reprinted California Tokens, a book which had been out of print for several years and which was selling for prices approaching $100 per copy. These books have retail prices of $27.50 and $37.50 respectively ($22 and $30 for TAMS members).

Also available from TAMS are the following books: Alaska Tokens, $20 ($16); Iowa Trade Tokens, $25 ($20); and Medallic Portraits of Adolf Hitler, $14 ($11.25). Members' prices are shown in parenthesis. These books are all worthwhile additions to any collector's library. Orders should be sent to the TAMS Secretary.

Over the years I have been the proud recipient of numerous awards for numismatic exhibits, articles, and books. Usually these awards are suitably engraved plaques. At the TAMS banquet this year I was presented with a very large and most impressive plaque — the TAMS President's plaque. There are two significant differences between this and those plaques I have received in the past. For one thing, It is not mine to keep; in two years I must pass it on to the incoming TAMS President. Also, instead of being presented in recognition of past performance, this plaque was given to me as a reminder of my future responsibilities as president.

The plaque is engraved with the name and term of each TAMS president, starting with our first president, George Fuld (1960-1962). Looking over the names I am reminded of the many distinguished leaders whose past performances I must live up to. At the top of the plaque is engraved "The Presidential Challenge" which reads, IT'S THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PRESIDENT TO SHOULDER AND DISPATCH EACH TASK AS BEST HE CAN, IN FACE OF THE ADVERSITIES THAT ARISE WITH CERTAINTY, AS THE PAST IS PROLOGUE, SO THE FUTURE IS UNDEFINED. It is my goal that future TAMS presidents, when looking at this plaque, consider my term of office one worth living up to.

David E. Schenkman

General Meeting of Token and Medal Society

Milwaukee, Wisconsin August 7, 1986

Meeting was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by the first vice president David Schenkman in the absence of the president Paul Koppenhaver, with 70 persons in attendance.

On motion of Ben Odesser and second of George Cuhaj, the minutes of the general meeting in Baltimore, Maryland, of 1985 were dispensed with.

David Schenkman introduced two junior recipients of the TAMS Scholarship Award: Dorothy Stutzman in 1985 and Laura Magreta in 1986. Both girls expressed their appreciation of the award, and the opportunity to attend the ANA summer seminar in Colorado Springs.

Treasurer's report was read by Charles J. Ricard. Charles reported that our Warner Communications stock will be making a two-for-one split at the end of August.

Ken Bressett was introduced as the representative for A.N.A. and welcomed the TAMS members, naming the Token and Medal Society as one of the more important 'fringe' groups that attends American Numismatic Association gatherings.

Librarian's Report was submitted by Cheryl Maisch, indicating that she had loaned 318 books since August 1985 as a result of 164 requests. Due to a physical move of the librarian, the books were in storage for a brief period, but things should be back to normal soon. She stated that the library continues to receive many donations of books and periodicals.

Journal Editor Dave Schenkman reported that he had a very low backlog of material and urged members to write about their particular interests. The Journal mailing date is ideally the first of the month, and this goal is hoped to be met since Paul Cunningham has returned to Michigan after a year in Hawaii.

Paul added that his residency in Hawaii prevented him from 'breathing down the neck' of the printer and that there is no longer a problem in this area. He announced that the Arkansas Token Book as well as the California Token reprint were available at the TAMS booth on the club midway.

While there is no other book in the works at this time, they are working on a journal supplement on 'Tokens of Delaware'.

Membership report by the secretary shows that the society had a membership of 1,720 members as of July 20, 1986. This is a decrease of 76 members from the report in 1985. It is felt that this is partly due to the discontinuance of second notices for delinquent dues. There are 151 life members and one associate member. TAMS lost ten (10) members by death.

Membership recruitment report showed David Schenkman and Al Baber as obtaining 11 members each since last report; other recruiters were Cindy Grellman (9), Paul Cunningham (8), Al Zaika (9), and Rich Hartzog (4). Many TAMS members have been credited with 2 new members.

Medal chairman Al Baber reported on assemblage medal sales and past president medals. The Koppenhaver past president medal will sell for $60 for the silver, $10 for the bronze or $65 for the set of two. Al reported that the 1986 assemblage medal is nearly sold out, as he had reserved the serial numbers from previous purchasers. He requested ideas for a design for the 1987 medal, when the convention will be held in Atlanta, Georgia. Information will be published in the Journal as soon as possible in order that interested members may order their medals. Member John Pittman suggested that medals be sold on a subscription basis only.

Secretary Dorothy read the names of the 36 members who will be eligible for their 25 year pins at the banquet this evening. Only four responded and indicated they would be attending, i.e. John Pittman, Steve Album, Harry Flower and Gerald Johnson.

David Schenkman gave the members a brief run-down of the action of the board at the meeting this morning, i.e., increase advertising rates, increase the price of the Alaska Token Book to $20.00, probability of a membership directory next year, and continuation of scholarship to A.N.A. Summer Seminar for junior member.

Paul Cunningham announced that there is one new program for the slide projector program, and if any members are interested in obtaining this for their clubs, they should contact Paul Dillingham. Donn Perlman has narrated the program, produced by Charlotte and David Gale.

Motion to adjourn successfully passed,
Respectfully submitted,

Dorothy Baber
Secretary

TAMS Awards Dinner
Milwaukee, Wisconsin, August 7, 1986

Master of Ceremonies Margo Russell was introduced by TAMS President, Paul Koppenhaver. Margo, in turn, uniquely introduced members and guests by means of a poem she had written, directed at many of the TAMS officers and past officers, as well as A.N.A. dignitaries.

The Mishler Catalog awards were presented by David Schenkman. There was no first place/gold award this year, but the second place, Silver award, was for the catalog, Play Money of American Children written by Richard F. Clothier, TAMS #4880. Mr. Clothier was not present to receive the award.

The third place, Bronze award, was made to Howard Herz, TAMS #5227, for his catalog, Harvey's Guide to Collecting Gaming Checks and Chips.

There was no Bronze (third place) winner in the Literary awards for 1986, but the silver award was received for the article Fares and Tokens Used in Rochester New York — 1833 to 1983 by Douglas Borden. His award was accepted by John J. Pittman.

The Gold first place award, the Joseph M. Segel award, which is presented for the article that best relates to the original history of tokens and medals, was presented to the Society's Treasurer Charles J. Ricard for his article Valley Forge Medallic Memorials by Robert B. Korver, representing Franklin Mint.

Honorable Mention awards were given to Robert Julian for Medals of the United States Mint — 1907/1923 and to Cheryl Maisch for the Library Catalog of Token and Medal Society, June, 1985.

The Sylvia Odesser Best of Judaica Exhibit award was presented by Ben Odesser to Robert D. Leonard, Jr., who was present to receive the award.

The Society's Medal of Merit was presented by Paul Cunningham, one of the winners of the previous year, having shared the honor with David Schenkman. The winner this year was Barbara Hyde, who was not able to be present to accept the award.

The Society was prepared to honor 36 twenty-five year members, but the only ones who were present to accept the engraved lapel pin were John J. Pittman, Harry Flower, Steve Album and Gerald Johnson. Other 25 year members for 1986 are Mrs. C.B. Allen, L.D. Beaver, Aubrey Bebee, Don Benjamin, Jim Betton, Lansing Brisbin, Vernon Brown, William R. Bryant, George Delfico, A.H. Erickson, J.J. Garside, D.O. German, Jack Greenwald, Byron Hoke, Herman Krajewski, Dan Lorden, Anthony Marra, Lawrence McCarthy, Charles McSorley, Willard Mumford, Henry Myjak, Elmer Noll, John R. Reynolds, Harold Schmal, G.A. Schmidtman, Richard Schwartz, Neil Shafer, Bill Spilman, Elizabeth Stevens, John Tellefsen, Herbert Weiss and Ray Williamson.

2nd Vice President . . Paul A. Cunningham

Board of Governors:

Ben Odesser	Cindy Grellman
Gene Hynds	Steven Tannenbaum

Appointed officers are:

Dorothy C. Baber . . . . . Secretary
Cheryl Maisch . . . . . Librarian
Lawrence P. Baber . . . . . Treasurer
David Ganz . . . . . Legal Counsel
David Schenkman . . . . . Journal Editor
Paul Cunningham . . . . . Journal Publisher

Newly installed President David E. Schenkman presented to retiring President Paul Koppenhaver a set of three of the Koppenhaver Past President Medals, in gold, silver and bronze.

A highlight of the evening was the auction of yet another TAMS green beret, this one belonging to Margo Russell. Her TAM was in MINT condition, still in the original wrapper. The lucky bidder was Harvey L. Rose, of El Cajon, CA, who took the TAM away from the other bidders for $350. As in the past, the proceeds are ear-marked for educational purposes for Young Numismatists, going to a scholarship to ANA summer seminar for a deserving youth.

Harvey and Patsy Rose, celebrating 25 years in the numismatic hobby, made presentations of a three-piece set of "THE ROSES" medal, (silver, bronze and aluminum) to a number of guests present.

The evening ended with a number of door prizes, including several copies of the newly published books, Tom Robinson's book on Arkansas tokens, and the Kappen California Token reprint.

Lining-Up: A Selection of Golf Marker Tokens

by Fred Zinkann

Rolling in a long putt for a birdie or eagle is to golf as hitting a home run is to baseball — it gets the player to the scoring destination in the quickest possible time. And in a game where the lowest score wins instead of the highest, getting off the green as soon as possible is one of golf's foremost talents. The pros realize this all too well: "Drive for show, putt for dough," they say. A drive leaves the earth, travels far and sometimes widely; but a putt hugs the earth and must find just the right path to its scoring finish.

So important a part of golf is putting that it has its own tokens to mark ball placements on the putting green. Those tokens are used often. The average golfer takes approximately 38 to 42 putts per round (the pro must have no more than 30 to stay in winning contention) and must use his ball marker to keep his ball out of the way of other putters. Mis-use of the marker may cost the golfer a penalty stroke, a hole, even a whole match:

Marking Position of Lifted Ball (Rule 20-1)

> Before a ball on the putting green is lifted, its position shall be marked by placing an object, such as a small coin, immediately behind the ball; if the object interferes with another player, it should be moved one or more putterhead-lengths to the side. If the player fails so to mark the position of the ball, the player shall incur a penalty of one stroke and the ball shall be replaced. (Golf Rules in Pictures, New York, 1984, p. 62)

The tokens themselves come in a wide variety of metals, shapes, and designs. Calvin Peete, a flambouyant pro known to sometimes wear diamonds on his teeth, uses a solid gold marker. Tokens also come in sterling silver, plastic, bronze, brass, aluminum, pewter, and steel. Shapes include octagon, round, shamrock-shaped, nine-sided, hexagon, and the most currently wide-spread, the nail shaped. These plastic pieces look like large thumbtacks. More expedient markers include snap-buttons on some golf gloves; some putters have detachable snap markers.

It is in design that markers sometimes surprise the exonumist. While most carry only a simple advertising blurb or a company logo, others have pictorials quite sophisticated for the species. The basic design of a metal marker is limited to certain standards: it must be small, light, and thin, for easy carrying and unobtrusive use on the green. Sizes vary from 15mm to 22mm in width, and only a millimeter or so in thickness. Nail-shaped plastic pieces sink into the ground until they are flush with the level of the green.

Issuers range from large companies to small golf shops or country clubs. Companies use them as gifts to their clients or employees for golf outings. They are also used as "tickler" items, give-away knick-knacks to advertise company products: the simplest of the type can be seen in the Arrow Pontiac marker of St. Paul, Minnesota and the Chicago Tribune piece, both issued in the 1950s, in brass, 15mm each. An aluminum Pan American Airlines piece of the 1960s uses the company logo for the obverse and a golfing theme for the reverse. A natural tie-in for a cold beer after the golf match marks the Michelob token on a 1970s brass coin. A Jack Daniels' pewter marker does the same for mixed drinks at that favorite golfing hole, the 19th.

More intricate designs grace the Rockland Trust Company token of Rockland, Massachusetts, one of the few non-mavericks seen among the type. Also unusual is the bold high relief. A somewhat abstract advertising marker for the Simplex Wire and Cable Co. of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, uses designs of an American eagle and cross-sections of the company's main product, insulated wire and cable cord systems for communication control products.

Golf themes, as one might expect, appear on many company markers. General Motors' Oldsmobile division conducted a Beat-the-

Champions tournament in 1965 and issued a special national golf day token in bronze, with the metal composition stamped on the piece itself. energetic pictorial of the Glen Ellyn, Illinois, Glen Oak Country Club Roundup piece. The private club in DuPage County had these made for a special tournament in the 1950s. One of the more elaborate markers comes from a major U.S. golf tournament, the U.S. Open of 1982, played at Pebble Beach, California. Made of an unusual metal for a golf token, nickel-silver, the uniface piece pictures the American eagle carrying golf clubs, a driver, a fairway iron, and, of course, a putter.

A historically significant ball marker, the 1941 British War Relief round, appears to be one of few specifically dated pieces, June 14, 1941. The U.S. National Golf Tournament that year,

The National Golf Tournament of 1941 was held for the benefit of the British War Relief Society. The marker is dated June 14, 1941.

played at the Colonial Club in Fort Worth, Texas, was conducted for the British society's benefit and was the last U.S. tournament of any significance for the next four war years. Golf was a low priority sport from 1941-1945. The very small (only 13mm) piece carries the logo of the society, a rampant British lion and the motto "Dieu et mon droit" (God and my right) and two strategically placed golf balls. The same design appears on both sides of the brass token, which was probably a souvenir of entry and donation.

Ed Fleming, whose location remains a mystery, issued his own marker.

And what's a series of tokens without a personally-named maverick. Ed Fleming's marker is a uniface, extremely thin (less than 1mm) piece of simple design — putting green and flag. The brass, 18mm token might be a private issue of a country club pro golfer, given at instructional sessions to students or match partners. An even more generic ball marker is one sold by Sears, Roebuck; it has only the putting green and flag — no lettering at all on its white metal surface.

So the next time you visit a golf accessories shop in search of club-head cleaners, divot fixers, or ball washers, give a look to the putting markers too. You might be surprised at what you find there!

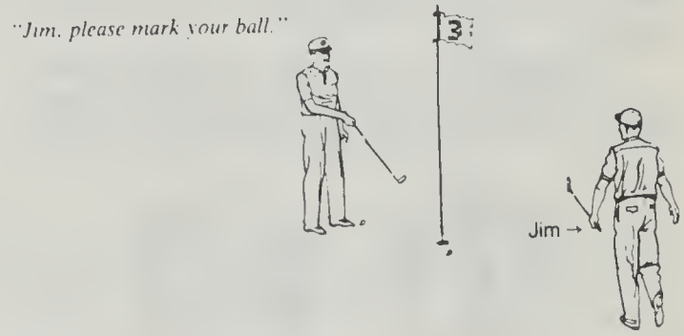
There seems to be some mystery involved with the origin of ball marker tokens. No one knows when or where they first appeared as a specific golf item; their manufacture appears to have been prolific only in the last forty-five years or so. The Professional Golfers Association of America (PGA), The United States Golf Association (U.S.G.A.), and even the Professional Putters Association of Fayetteville, North Carolina, were unable to give any information on the history or use of markers. The Encyclopedia of Golf Collectibles (Florence, Alabama; 1985) does not even mention them. Research is still in the "rough" on these bits of sporting exonumia.



More on the Feltmans Coney Island Tokens

by Sam Ruggeri, TAMS 2008

In my article on the Feltmans Coney Island tokens (see TAMS Journal, July 1986 issue) I referred to the possible existence of several additional tokens. As I stated, a woman (replying to my query in the Sunday News "I Remember" column) wrote about a swimming pool called Feltman's which had an entrance on the Boardwalk. She couldn't recall whether it was this pool or another, but she did remember that if you wanted to leave the pool and then return, you were given "something round that had the number of persons on it that were leaving. For instance, we were four and we were given one with a four on it." She didn't recall its size or composition.

Since preparing the article I have acquired what appears to be one of the tokens to which my correspondent alluded. It is brass, slightly over 20mm in diameter, and struck with incuse lettering. The inscription, which is the same on obverse and reverse, is FELTMAN'S / 5 / OCEAN PAVILION. Apparently this signifies that five persons are leaving the pool area and would be returning. How many other numbers were used? I assume at least one through four, although Feltmans may have provided for a group of six or more leaving and returning. If any reader has, or is aware of, any other tokens in this series, I would like to know of them. My address is P.O. Box 155, Westerville, OH 43081.

Worldwide Tokens

by Jerry F. Schimmel, TAMS 1977

The nitrate mine tokens of Chile have been amply documented by Elwin Leslie, a frequent and admired contributor to this journal. The illustrated piece is a copper mine token from the area of Collahuasi, high in the Andes mountains near the Bolivian frontier at the northeastern tip of Antofagasta Province. The token is interestingly bilingual, in French and Spanish, and reads SOCIETE FRANCAISE DES MINES DE CUIVRE, COLLAHUASI LA GRANDE. The reverse is VALE POR UN PESO DE MERCADERIAS. PULPERIA . 1 PESO, or the "French Copper Mining Company, Collahuasi La Grande (mine site), Good For 1 Peso In Merchandise In The Company Store." Collahuasi is or was one of the more famous copper mines in the country. The token is red vulcanite, 40mm, and is of a type made very late in the 19th century or possibly in the first decade of the 20th. Chilean tokens, especially the nitrate mine issues, are plentiful in North America.

This handsome 29mm copper token states VALE O CONSUMO DE 200 REIS in the FABRICA DE CERVEJA of AUGUSTO KRUSS SUCCESSORES in the city of PERNAMBUCO. Translated it reads "Good For 200 Reis in Trade at the Augusto Kruss Brewery." It is a nice Brazilian beer token from the late 19th century. The modern name of the city is Recife, which is located on the easternmost tip of Brazil. The town was a U.S. navy and army air corps base during World War Two.

Rather little is known about Brazilian tokens in North America, and they are scarce here except for some modern amusement and older transport pieces. Only one out of print work, by Ludolf, is known on the series. She has assigned this token the number 471. (Source: Moedas Particulares E Vales Metalicos Do Brasil by Dulce Ludolf, Museu Historico Nacional, Rio De Janeiro, 1968.)

The issuers of this token made every effort to get as much information on it as they could. The 28mm brass piece was made in the United States and is bilingual, in English and Spanish. The legend reads MANZANO FARMING CO. 25 COLUMBIA 1901. On the reverse is MANZANO, CARRENO, SOCONUSCA / PAPAYO Y SATIVA / SOTAQUIRA Y PAIPA. Manzano, Carreno, and Soconusca, were the names of the owner-partners. Papayo Y Sativa were what they planted. A Papayo is the tree that bears the tropical fruit, Papaya. Sativa translates approximately to "Other Cultivated Products."

Sotaquira Y Paipa are two agricultural localities in Tundama Province, Boyaca Department, in the central southeast part of the country, on the Boyaca river. Tokens of Columbia are moderately scarce and, like many from Latin American countries, no studies of them are known here in North America. The best known tokens from Columbia are the mid-19th century pieces with the term "Mitad" on the reverse. These latter have often been misattributed to Peru. (Source: Colombia by V. Levine, Appleton & Co., New York, 1914.)

Next to the tokens of Paraguay, those of Ecuador are probably the rarest on the continent, other than some modern gaming tokens made by the Franklin Mint in the 1960s. This brass, 31mm piece was obtained directly from Ecuador. It reads simply HACIENDA VIOLETA AOR on the obverse, while the reverse reads VALE 50 CENTAVOS. The letters AOR are the initials of the owner, Alfredo O. Reyre. The hacienda is or was located in Sabaneta Parish, Los Rios Province. That province is just north of Guayaquil and includes the town of Babahoyo, which is near the site of the token's provenance. There is one man in Guayaquil working on a list of tokens for this country; it has not yet been published. (Source: Victor Iza Rodriquez, Guayaquil, Ecuador.)

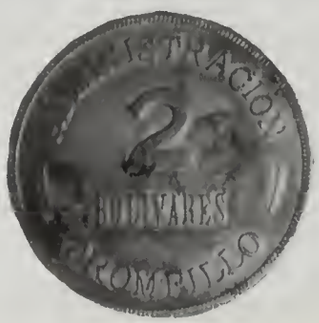
Probably the rarest tokens from continental South America will come from Paraguay if not from Ecuador. The illustrated 31mm copper token appears to be British made, this conclusion being supported by the fact that its inscription is entirely in English. However, the styles of some die sinkers from other areas in South America are similar. British investment in Argentina, and consequently Paraguay, was very widespread at this time. The obverse legend reads PARAGUAY LAND CATTLE CO PLC (as a monogram) 1912, with simply the denomination 20 on the reverse. The token was probably used to pay employees.

A rather common piece is this one from HACIENDA PUENTE near the coast at SANTA, some 280 miles north of Lima, Peru. Besides the date of 1878, the obverse depicts a stand of cut sugar cane bound together. The reverse states VALE 20 CENTAVOS, DIONISIO DERTEANO, or "Good For 20 Cents" and the owner's name. The piece is nickel and 26mm. Two other denominations exist — 5¢ and 10¢.

Not much was known about Peruvian tokens until Sr. Schiaffino of Lima began his work. The illustrated piece is listed as number 589. Tokens of this country are increasingly plentiful on the North American market. (Source: Las Fichas Peruanas by Jose Antonio Schiaffino, Banco Wiese Ltdo, Lima, 1984.)

The illustrated token comes from the Department of San Jose in Uraguay, just northwest of the national capital of Montevideo. Even more likely is that the ESTANCIA DE JOSE B. PORTELA (Estate of Jose B. Portela) was located around the departmental seat of San Jose De Mayo. The token has the usual design of those from beef cattle ranches, carrying its cattle brand and the country of provenance, REPUBLICA ORIENTAL DEL URUGUAY, as part of the legend. The high standard of die-sinking used on this piece suggests that the estate was a substantial operation. Other tokens from Uruguayan ranches are only stock pieces with initials, numbers, or cattle brands hand counterstamped on blank areas. Other denominations from this firm exist. The die sinker's name, TAMMARO, is at the bottom of the reverse. He was apparently the major token maker for the country.

Uruguayan tokens are increasingly available on the North American market, after having been almost unknown here for years.



Tokens are popular in Venezuela and even some of the most common command prices there that would amaze U.S. collectors. Unfortunately they do not sell to North American hobbyists at those rates. A work completed by G.R. Garriga of Caracas, but not yet printed as a catalog, gives some background on a number of Venezuela pieces. For example he writes about the ADMINISTRACION TROMPILLO token illustrated here: "...(General Gomez was)...a wealthy hacendado (in 1920) with multiple agricultural holdings in Carabobo State, the principal one being El Trompillo, near (the town of) Guigue. These haciendas produced sugar, paper, pulp, brandy, wheat bread, coconut oil, cut tobacco, casaba, melons, starch, tarter oil, chocolate, etc..." The hacienda was about 100 miles southwest of Caracas, but inland.

Several denominations of the EL TROMPILLO piece are known, this one being for 2 BOLIVARES. It is copper, 35mm, and uniface. (Source: Fichas, Senas Y Napas De Venezuela by Gorgias R. Garriga, Cuadernos Lagoven, Caracas, 1979.)

New Finds Featured in Tax Token Society Newsletter

The American Tax Token Society (ATTS) has published the July-September 1986 issue of its ATTS Newsletter. Highlighting the issue are reports of the discoveries of two previously unknown tokens. One is a 25mm square wood, with purple printing, issued by Hopkins Merc., Tenino, Wash., while the other is a variety of the aluminum 5 mill Utah sales tax token with a square punched cut-out in its center.

Featured in the newsletter is an article titled "Missouri Sales Tax Tokens." The information was compiled by E.C. Kettenbrink, Jr., who writes in its introduction, "The following notes, spanning a ten year period, are reproduced verbatim from seven contemporary newspaper clippings. They were discovered in an ancient homemade scrapbook that housed a few common Missouri tokens." "Illinois: Miscellany," an article penned by Merlin K. Malehorn, gives technical details concerning tax tokens issued by the State of Illinois. Malehorn, in another article, discusses the Smithsonian Institution's collection of tax tokens.

Rounding out the issue are advertisements and reports of the Society's activities. Also included are letters from several members, and the group's financial report.

Collectors interested in joining the American Tax Token Society should contact the ATTS Secretary-Treasurer Tim Davenport, P.O. Box 614, Corvallis, OR 97339.

Rotary Club Medal Released

The Rotary Club of Johnson City, New York has issued the second in what is planned as an ongoing series of medals. The obverse of the medal depicts District 717 Governor Robert J. Moppert, along with the Rotary logo. The reverse is designed to graphically illustrate the project selected as the District's theme for the year. Camp Tuscarora is a Boy Scout camp which is being refitted to accommodate handicapped persons, including scouts and non-scouts, both male and female.

The project is a joint effort of the Rotary group, Susquenango Council of the Boy Scouts, and the local Easter Seals Foundation. No national funds have been allocated for the project. Therefore money raised through sale of the medals, as well as local contributions, are the primary sources of income.

The cost for a complete five piece set of medals, including specimens in one troy ounce .999 fine silver, antique bronze, bronze proof, pewter, and aluminum, is $53.00. The silver medal by itself costs $25.00, as does a three piece set of bronze proof, antique bronze, and pewter. Aluminum medals are not offered separately.

Orders and requests for additional information should be sent to the Johnson City Rotary Club. The group's address is P.O. Box 264, Johnson City, NY 13790.

Medal Design Suggestions Solicited for 1987 TAMS Medal

TAMS Medals Chairman Al Baber is seeking suggestions for the design of the 1987 TAMS Assemblage medal. The 1987 TAMS meeting will be held in Atlanta, Georgia, in conjunction with the American Numismatic Association's annual convention, and designs should relate to some facet of Atlanta's history or a local landmark.

Interested members should sketch a representative design and submit it to Al Baber, 611 Oakwood Way, El Cajon, CA 92021.

TAMS Medals Available

The custom of issuing medals by TAMS dates back to the early days of the organization. Every other year a medal is struck to honor the outgoing president. And, assemblage medals are struck for each year's meeting. Many of the past medals are still available, affording newer members an opportunity to add to their sets. Listed below are those medals which may be purchased directly from TAMS. As the figures indicate, some are in very short supply, so interested collectors are urged to order promptly.

HELP!

The camera used to take the photographs for the TAMS Maverick column is a unit with a camera and lighting mounted inside a box. Originally manufactured by J.G. Products of Santa Barbara, California, it was sold under the name Custom Sixty Coin Stamp Unit.

The problem is that Eastman Kodak no longer makes the film (Vericrome Pan 127) used in the camera. If any reader knows of a film substitute for V P 127, or has information on another type of similar camera which uses a different film, I would greatly appreciate hearing from you.

MAVERICKS

For the present time, please do not send any more mavericks; we have a large backlog to be listed. I will let you know when more are needed. I recommend that you get John Sena's new book on mavericks. Very likely it will identify many of your tokens. John's address is P.O. Box 57002, Tucson, AZ 85732.

Maverick Identifications

The recently released maverick books by Ruggieri and Sena have resulted in the identification of many tokens. Many thanks to all of you who have sent in attributions. I am especially thankful to those who send a reference with an identification. This is helpful when the same token is attributed to more than one city by different members.

Identifications should be sent to Lewis K. Ferguson, 1605 Roosevelt Ave., Ames, IA 50010.

A Correction —

2291 & 11360 ARDEN DEPT. STORE — This was identified as Arden, Wash. Not true, so my sources tell me. Ardens is a large store organization. However I am told that Arden, Wash. is a small town with never over 100 persons. Thus a large Department store is unlikely.

WE DISAGREE

Mail order deception has infiltrated our hobby, prompting many collectors to lump all hobby publications into that "soiled" category.

Well, we disagree! Because at NUMISMATIC NEWS we take special measures to protect the interests of our valued subscribers. We do it by insisting that advertisers pass a strict screening policy before they utilize our pages. And, we affirm advertiser integrity on an ongoing basis, through an aggressive "blind testing" program, recognizing solid advertising practices with the Krause Publications' Customer Service Award.

Others may talk a good game, but it's a solid policy of action that keeps NUMISMATIC NEWS standing above the rest. That's why you can rely on NUMISMATIC NEWS to provide a favorable climate for both buyer and seller.

Columbia's

BICENTENNIAL MEDALLION

1786-1986

Now you can own the official Columbia Bicentennial Medallion, a beautiful memento marking the city's entry into its third century.

The initial offering of fewer than 10,000 of these distinctive coin medals, in bronze or silver, assures the rarity that all collectors relish. The individual serial numbering of the silver issue and the silver/bronze sets adds to their collectibility.

The solid bronze medallions are 1½" in diameter and are hand finished in a rich patina.

The silver medallions are 1½" in diameter and contain one troy ounce of .999 fine silver.

Each medallion has been struck on the giant coin press at Medallic Art Company in Danbury, Connecticut, the firm which made the dies for Columbia's Sesquicentennial Commemorative Coin in 1936. Single issues are housed in attractive plastic containers, while the matched silver/bronze sets come in special presentation cases protected by a separate box bearing the Century III logo.

In addition, a limited number of gold medallions will be struck in 1986. FEWER THAN 50 GOLD LEFT!*

FEWER THAN 500BRONZE/SILVER SETS REMAIN. SUPPLIES OF SINGLE BRONZE AND SILVER MEDALLIONS ARE ALSO LIMITED.

THE HANDSOME BICENTENNIAL MEDAL WAS A LIMITED EDITION. ONLY 2,000 SETS WERE MINTED. 2,000 SINGLE SILVER MEDALS WERE STRUCK AND 3,000 SINGLE BRONZE MEDALS WERE ISSUED. SUPPLIES ARE BECOMING LIMITED.

* Write for details on gold issue.

IOWA TRADE TOKENS

by Lewis K. Ferguson

Published by Token and Medal Society

From Ackley to Zearing all known examples — over 7500 — of Iowa trade tokens are cataloged in this long awaited, up-dated edition. Lewis K. Ferguson the author, is considered to be the authority on this subject, having produced the first edition, Trade Tokens of Iowa, in 1972. Since that time, thousands of new tokens have surfaced, which necessitated an increase in size from 394 pages to 520!

The introduction gives a brief history of the important role the token played in our economic society. Also explained is the easy-to-use cataloging system, plus a rarity rating which is an important factor when determining value. This 6x9 volume is casebound and has the title stamped in gold on the front cover as well as the spine.

A special discount is being offered to TAMS members.
